

THE EARTHDANCER SCHOOL OF SHOEMAKING

- Join us, 30 year veteran boot makers as we take you on a journey of learning how to craft custom footwear beneath the auspicious shadows of the Sangre De Cristo Mountains near the international retreat destination of Crestone ,Co.
- Classes are designed to teach you how to make different types of shoes, boots and sandals as well as all aspects of creating a business and marketing your new skills, if desired.
- You will learn how to measure and cast the feet, create the pattern, choose the appropriate leathers and learn how to comfortably operate our industrial machines. Followed by attaching the soles and applying the finishing touches culminating with a test hike up the North Crestone Creek Trailhead.
- Choose from 12 color combinations and many different Vibram soles to suit your needs.
- You will leave class having created a handmade pair of boots for yourself, and the skills to make many more.
- All tools and materials are provided as well as a daily catered lunch.
